Spouse/Partner Career Services

Relocating professionals often have a spouse or partner who may also be seeking quality job opportunities. Don't face these career challenges by yourself. Our family relocation assistance program offers resources which provide advantages for the discovery of job opportunities throughout Southwest Florida.

Although we cannot guarantee employment, our career services provide numerous resources through our employment and training organization.

PLAN YOUR FUTURE THROUGH OUR CAREER SERVICES

Businesses are expanding in or relocating to Southwest Florida every day.

Our services are available to the spouse or partner of the employees of the businesses within our targeted industries.

Services are prepaid through taxes and are provided at no cost to our customers.

RESOURCES

The job search can be intimidating. Let us help! Our Florida Certified Workforce Professionals are ready to meet with you.

 Our staff will review résumés and provide suggestions to assist relocating professionals with this important job search tool.

 Through our extensive business contacts, you may be introduced to key decision makers and hiring authorities.

 All participants are always invited to join the Professional Career Network.

 Our job matching system, Employ Florida Marketplace (EFM), is an online job bank that provides 24/7 access to a wide variety of job openings. Staff constantly search the EFM Job Bank to provide referrals to employers.

 By registering with EFM and posting your résumé, you will be able to access a full range of features and services to assist in your career search. This includes figuring out what jobs you are qualified for, how much those jobs pay, and other issues of interest.

 Our staff can teach you how to maximize your potential for locating appropriate job openings in Employ Florida Marketplace.
