

I Believe

Tamaris B.

East Naples Middle School

I know I have brains in my head and feet in my shoes.

I am the one driving myself in the direction that I choose.

When I choose there isn't just one route.

So I choose carefully without a doubt.

There are many directions that I can pick,

But I will not choose the one with a horrible trick.

I love math and science,

But only one that I will choose to have an alliance.

Will I be a teacher or a doctor?

Maybe I will become a proctor.

Our lives may never know what will come,

But I will hope for the best and eat a plum.

I never will know what's inside,

Until I use some pride.

I really don't know what the future may hold,

It may be hot or it may be cold.

I just want to know what it will withhold.

My future will NEVER be controlled.

I don't care what people may think.

I can be out of their lives with just a blink.

Yes, I do have baggage,

But, it came in a package.

I have so many struggles that you may not see,

I keep it in a box and purposely lost the key.

That box will never open,

Unless it was broken.

When it breaks from being full of misery,

I'll be one miserable bee.

Sometimes life isn't one big joy,

It doesn't matter if I am a girl or a boy.

Oh the places I will go,

Maybe you will never know.

Don't even ask about myself further in my lifetime,

Because I will tell you that I'm no Einstein.

I do have many self-motivations,

They're with all my expectations.

And finally to all my generations,

We all have our own limitations.
