

WTP - Notification of Milestone Achievement Incentives

The Welfare Transition Program (WTP) Milestone Achievement Incentive Awards provide customers an opportunity to earn incentives as specific individualized career path milestones are achieved.

How does it work?

Initially: CareerSource staff guide you through assessments to take a look at your knowledge, employment skill sets, unique abilities, career interest and things standing in your way of success.

Secondly: CareerSource staff work with you to develop your own individualized Career Path Plan to include your career goals and milestone details.

Lastly: Upon your achievement of certain goals and milestones while a WTP Mandatory or Transitional Services customer, you may be awarded with a milestone incentive.
